

Royal Wedding Weekend

Celebration is the order of the day for the Royal Wedding on Friday with a street party, wedding cake, pork baps and special Staffordshire beer to ensure the atmosphere is set, following the wedding, which can be viewed at Amerton Farm. There will be a live band at 3.00pm in the main court yard, called 'Ever So Slightly!' The band are three teenage girls from Stafford called Roxy, Holly and Alice, who are looking forward to entertaining all those participating in the street party. Red, white and blue flags will adorn the courtyard and the staff are all prepared for the happy occasion.

You will still be able to participate in the festivities over the weekend as we are having a live blues band called Mister Terrapin's Jazz and Blues Experience, who will be playing live in the main courtyard on Monday at 1.00pm and 3.00pm

Quote from Eunice Finney, General Manager, 'We are looking forward to a really fun weekend with lots of activities and fantastic live music. Come along and join in the fun. We have lambs in the farmyard, water walking and if the children have not yet experienced our new bouncy castle in the Playbarn then please come along and give it a go'.

Mister Terrapin's Jazz and Blues Experience can be viewed on <http://misterterrapin.co.uk/gallery.aspx>

Royal Wedding Celebrations

You are invited to

Amerton Farm & Craft Centre to celebrate the marriage of

His Royal Highness Prince William of Wales, KG

with

Miss Catherine Middleton

on

Friday 29th April 2011 and the rest of the weekend.

- * Street Party with Pork Baps and Wedding Cake *
- * Local Beer served from the barrel *
- * Live bands (Friday and Bank Holiday Monday afternoon) *
- * View the Royal Wedding on the television *

RSVP Not necessary

Dress optional for the occasion